

Jenny

I have owned Bumble Bees for 35 years serving the families of Kemsing and surrounding areas.

I have worked abroad, in a special baby care unit and social services. I started Bumble Bees after having children of my own and saw the need for local childcare and we have been here ever since. I enjoy dog walking and spending time with my new grandson, Freddie.